The General enlisted in the First Troop of the Philadelphia City Cavalry of the Pennsylvania National Guard in 1917. Commissioned a sec-

Mrs. Patterson Named County Charity Head

Salvation Army Fund
Drive Will Open
Thursday, April 10

Mrs. Joseph M. Patterson, of Rose Lane, Haverford, Chairman of the Suburban Division for the Salvation Army's 1947 Maintenance Fund Campaign, has announced that Mrs. Robert J. Patterson, of Lansdowne, has been named Chairman of the Delaware County Division.

The Salvation Army's annual drive will begin Thursday, April 10, to raise $750,000 for the support of the "Army's" 27 local social-welfare agencies, which are dedicated to giving a helping hand to anyone in need, regardless of race, class or creed.

These agencies take care of orphans, settlement house children, stranded girls, unmarried mothers, homeless men, men in prison, transients and destitute, overseas needy, disabled servicemen, veterans and their families.

To continue this humanitarian work of the Salvation Army, Mrs. Robert Patterson, who has long been an enthusiastic Salvation Army Campaign worker, states her division is pledged to attain its quota—and "go over the top."

Organization Complete
She reports that her campaign organization is almost complete in all its many sections and that the response of the workers this year is most gratifying. She stated the workers' interest is "very encouraging" because the Delaware County Division includes a large area and will need the aid of as many volunteers as possible.

Ex-Charity Aide Is Found Dead In Her Garage

Miss Margaret Betts
a Suicide Victim,
Coroner Stretch Says

A former Montgomery County Secretary of the Children's Aid Society, who resigned last June after serving for nearly 20 years, committed suicide last Thursday afternoon in the garage of her home, 11 County Line Rd., Bryn Mawr.

The death was marked a suicide by Deputy Coroner John J. Stretch, Jr., of Delaware County.

In Ill Health
The woman, Miss Margaret Betts, 55, who had been in ill health since the time of her resignation, was found by Miss Ruth Farr, with whom she resided.

She was lying near the exhaust pipe of her car, having closed the doors of the two-car garage. Dr. James L. Shoemaker, who examined the body, said the woman had been dead at least an hour and a half. Firemen from Bryn Mawr were called to open the garage doors and enter the structure which had become filled with carbon monoxide fumes.

Miss Betts, who was the daughter of the late Benjamin F. and Lucy Betts, left no note and it was thought that she had been prompted to take her life because of falling health.

She began her work with the Children's Aid Society, in Norristown, in 1927, when it was still a small organization, but when she resigned last year, the organization had been built up considerably, with an increase from three to 11 persons on its staff.

OPEN HOUSE TO BE HELD AT VALLEY FORGE HOSP.

Colonel C. J. Gentzkow, M. C., Commanding Officer of Valley Forge General Hospital, has announced that plans have been completed for an Open House in connection with the nation-wide observance of Army Week from Sunday, April 6, to Saturday, April 12. The Open House, first for the general public since the hospital was opened early in 1943, will be Tuesday, April 8, from 1 to 4 P. M. At that time, Colonel Gentzkow said, the public is cordially invited to tour the hospital and see the Army at work.

Visitors to the post will be taken on guided tours of the hospital in groups of fifteen persons, who will be shown all the points of interest which normally are overlooked by visitors. A special Army Week radio program has been arranged for broadcast that day over the facilities of radio station WNAR at Norristown, and a band concert is scheduled for the afternoon. Refreshments will be served.

"It is our hope," said Colonel Gentzkow, "that the tour by the visitors will be not only interesting, but will be an inspiration and a renewal of our faith in the men and women who have made peace in our time possible."

Excused From Jury
Andrew Calhoun, of 45 Wyoming Ave., Ardmore, was excused Monday by Judge George C. Corson from service on the April Grand Jury.

Did you know that Dr. Frank H. Reichel, president of the American Viscose Company, has moved into the Township? He bought the 11-acre estate of William H. Luden, the coughdrop man, on Spring Mill Rd., Villanova. The Ludens, meanwhile, have bought the Thomas Seales property across the street from their old home, known as "L'Abril."

The Main Line Junior Chamber of Commerce has appointed Ben L. Taylor as its Director for Narberth. The Director system is a new one to stimulate interest in the Chamber of Commerce among business men in the community. Ben is an ex-pilot of the 8th Air Force, a graduate of Haverford School and the University of North Carolina. He's presently employed in the production department of the John B. Stetson Company and he lives in Wayne. You can call him Wayne 2290-W for information about the M. L. Jr. C. of C. . . .

Saw where Erwin A. Stuehner's plan for a joint buying plan by the Hospital Council of Philadelphia has been suggested to the 57 hospitals of the Council. He was telling me about the work the Council does when I was working on the feature story about him last week in our "Know Your Township" and "Know Your Borough" series . . . He's the Commissioner from Gladwyne . . .

Congratulations to James Edward Shillingford, who was two weeks old Tuesday. He's the son of Harvey Shillingford, head of the Personal Property Tax Department for the L. M. Division of Montgomery County, stationed in the Township Assessor's office . . .

By the way, should you wonder why no dogs were caught by dog catchers during March, it was because the dog wagon was being repaired . . . But the police cars did pick up a few—eight, to be exact, despite the wagon's being on the blink . . .

Guess that's about all for this week . . . Bye for now . . .

TOWN TALK

or's mansion? He lives on Wyoming Ave., Ardmore, guess you know, and the dinner he and Mrs. Peters attended was for members of the State Superior Court at Harrisburg.

Frances Flint, attractive daughter of the Theodore Flints, of 24 St. Paul's Rd., Ardmore, is making a name for herself at Wilson College. First she was in a play there and now she's been elected to the editorial staff of the "Billboard," the college newspaper.

Do hope that Bala golfer Robert L. Montgomery, Jr., is feeling better. He's been confined in Bryn his leg a while back.

The American Red Cross received contributions which they feel deserve special recognition. . . . The children of the Eleanor Reed Nursery School in Haverford sent in a box filled with pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters amounting to $6.24. . . . The other donation which came in contained $75 from the patients and staff of the Gladwyne Colony, Dr. S. DeWitt Ludlum's private hospital in Gladwyne.

Congratulations to Mrs. Mary Seery, of 1 Bala Ave., Bala-Cynwyd, who was awarded a bronze button for landing a five-foot, four-inch sailfish while she was fishing in the Gulf Stream in Stuart, Florida, during the latter part of March. She's a member of the Stuart Sailfish Club.

Be sure to stop down at the Bala-Cynwyd Women's Club Antique Show next week. The show will be open April 8, 9 and 10, and for the first time in its four-year history, two floors will open to the public. Mrs. Earl Y. Slaughter, of 61 W. Princeton Rd., Cynwyd, is chairman of the show . . .

Heard that Don Baker, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Baker, Sr., of 519 Munroe Rd., Merion, took part in an unusual entertainment at Shippensburg State Teachers College last Tuesday night. It was an aquacade, entitled "The Easter Parade," put on by a group of students and it was quite an elaborate program. Don swam in a number called "The Right and Wrong of It All."

Honestly if that Mrs. Ruth Grace isn't just out of this world! She was awarded a certificate of attainment by the Montgomery County Boroughs' Association at their annual dinner in the Norristown City Hall last Thursday night. She received it for having completed a 25-hour course at the Public Service Institute of Pennsylvania under the Department of Public Instruction.

Understand that Bob Cameron and Henry Carr, members of Council, and Henry Frye, Borough Solicitor, attended the dinner . . .

At the Saturday night performance of "Idiot's Delight" at the Plays and Players, I saw Betty Siedenburg, of the Suburban Square luggage concern; Nancy Simpson, of Narberth; Tommy Huff and Paul Goodyear, of Merion . . . It was a popular performance and a good one . . .

Did you know that Dr. Frank H. Reichel, president of the American Viscose Company, has moved into the Township? He bought the 11-acre estate of William H. Luden, the coughdrop man, on Spring Mill Rd., Villanova. The Ludens, meanwhile, have bought the Thomas Seales property across the street from their old home, known as "L'Abril."

The Main Line Junior Chamber of Commerce has appointed Ben L. Taylor as its Director for Narberth. The Director system is a new one to stimulate interest in the Chamber of Commerce among business men in the community. Ben is an ex-pilot of the 8th Air Force, a graduate of Haverford School and the University of North Carolina. He's presently employed in the production department of the John B. Stetson Company and he lives in Wayne. You can call him Wayne 2290-W for information about the M. L. Jr. C. of C. . . .

Saw where Erwin A. Stuehner's plan for a joint buying plan by the Hospital Council of Philadelphia has been suggested to the 57 hospitals of the Council. He was telling me about the work the Council does when I was working on the feature story about him last week in our "Know Your Township" and "Know Your Borough" series . . . He's the Commissioner from Gladwyne . . .

Congratulations to James Edward Shillingford, who was two weeks old Tuesday. He's the son of Harvey Shillingford, head of the Personal Property Tax Department for the L. M. Division of Montgomery County, stationed in the Township Assessor's office . . .

By the way, should you wonder why no dogs were caught by dog catchers during March, it was because the dog wagon was being repaired . . . But the police cars did pick up a few—eight, to be exact, despite the wagon's being on the blink . . .

Guess that's about all for this week . . . Bye for now . . .

Letter To The Editor

Philadelphia, Pa.
May 25, 1947.

The Spectator,
Our Town,
Narberth, Pa.

Sir:
The Spectator's article two weeks ago deserves wider circulation than Our Town can reasonably provide. I have the advantage of having been disgusted long before The Spectator. Perhaps his mind, more avid for reading matter, bore with the scourge longer than my own intolerance with such circumstances.

The fact that a book is still being read or on the market two years after publication is a poor yardstick by which to measure its worth. I can provide many examples to prove this point.

Therefore, this woman finds The Spectator's two year rule an unique one. Rather, I would recommend a discriminate leafing through before a purchase is made, instead of relying on some quack critic's daily bread. On the other hand, many actually want the junk that is being ground out today, for the entire trend is toward cordiness—the newspapers, the movies, the comics—life in general, everything seems to contain a slow mold of decay and destruction. Our so-called literature can be likened to a rash that indicates the disease within.

Book-lovers should rely more on the world's best seller, which is often sold but seldom read . . . for its beauty is unsurpassed and the reason it is not read for such a rich compensation is because, while the reader delights in the style, he may be influenced by the message, for indeed in this day it is quite a stumbling block for a man or woman to find the only right answer to "What's wrong with the world?"

Man's mind today is like an old piece of elastic, the kind women used to buy years ago for garters: after so much stretching it is no good. Man has stretched his conscience so much that it is no longer of any use to him, as one vibrant thing after the other that he finds in his nature is used to the excess of boredom. Next come the things not in his nature, crimes dictated to the point that cannot find a parallel anywhere, sifting down to something the world never experienced before, viz., vicious murder by children!

Lack of Mental Health
The mills of the gods grind slowly, but man turns the handle and his bread is of his own making, shot and gutted with the vitamins of death. And the books of the day are the belching of men's indigestion, the repetition of which indicates his lack of mental and spiritual health. I refrain from including a reference to the soul of man, for the word "soul" seems now to be in the same category as Santa Claus.

The best of us are caught in the mill, the spirit of the times, and the real light is no longer for the group, but for the individual. The call to Go, Teach all Nations is not paramount, for having lost so much ground, the cry must now become, Lord, that I may see.

Communism is an evil and wicked thing, but there is also great danger in the flabby national conscience of which this literary decadence is a definite sign.

Brookline, L. Merion Vets Meet On Saturday

Reeves Faces Nerve Problem As L. M. Opens

Haverford High's inexperienced baseball team collided head-on with one of Philadelphia's best schoolboy pitchers in their opener Monday, with the inevitable result.

Northeast High, of the Public League, scored a 5-0 triumph at 28th and Cambria Sts. as the Archives' Chick Shapiro registered a no-hitter. Shapiro allowed only three batters to reach first base, all on walks.

Shapiro, who hurled two no-hitters last season as a member of the Northeast junior varsity, faced but 23 batters in the seven-inning tilt. No Haverford swingers hit out of the infield.

All Northeast runs were unearned, leading fielding by Haverford infielders accounting for one run in the second and four in the sixth. Huber Smith, one of Haverford's three letter men, started on the mound for the Fords. Smith gave up only one hit and one run in four innings. Joe Sweeney hurled the last four innings for Allie Cornejo's charges.

Haverford, in its final warmup prior to the league opener April 10 at Norristown, encountered Episcopal Academy Thursday at the Churchmen's diamond. The game was postponed because of cold weather.

Ardmore Softballers

Will Open April 12-13

The Ardmore softball team, one of the leading contenders for the Suburban Softball League title over the past three seasons, will hold its initial workouts on Saturday and Sunday, April 12 and 13, at the Haverford Rd. field, near Ardmore Junction.

Anyone desirous of attending the practice sessions is welcome, Bill Taylor announced yesterday. Candidates must be more than 25 years and a permanent resident of Lower Merion or Haverford Townships. Taylor can be reached by calling Ardmore 5738.

One of the Fords' Few Bright Spots

Bill Cordes, of Haverford High, leaps back to first base a step ahead of the pitcher's throw in the Ford's opening baseball game at Haverford High, Philadelphia. However, Northeast's Chick Shapiro permitted only three to reach first as the Archives won, 5-0.

L. M. MERMAIDS TIE

Little Flower High School's swimming team tied Lower Merion High's girls Monday 33-33 in a dual meet held at the YWCA pool, Philadelphia.

The Little Flower swimmers were on the way to their fifth victory of the season, leading 29-25, prior to the last event—the 80-yard freestyle test.

Lower Merion Gymnasts Win State Title 4th Year in Row

Lower Merion High's powerful gymnastic team captured the PIAA State championship for the fourth consecutive season Saturday afternoon at State College by rolling up 54 1/2 points.

The Ardmore Aces, coached by Henry Drumm, finished with a wide margin over six rival squads. Pottsville was second with 31, Ellwood City had 29 and Lancaster six.

Leading L. M. to its conclusive triumph was Gene Zeiner, blond husky who won the horizontal bar championship last year. Zeiner retained that title and also added the parallel bars crown by compiling 26 1/2 points. He had 26 1/2 points in the horizontal bars to beat out George Carler, Lower Merion teammate who had 23 1/2.

Larry Jamieson scored Lower Merion's only other first in the side horse competition. He had 23 1/2 points against 23 1/2 for teammate Tony Nefzger. Dave Benner, L. M. was third with 21 1/2 and Bob Tyson fifth with 21 1/2.

Vets Draw On Even Terms, Win by 63 to 50

By HARRY ELLSWORTH
The Lower Merion Veterans surged back after a humiliating first-game defeat to thump Brookline 63-50, Friday night, and thus even up the Main Line League championship basketball series at one game apiece.

The third game in the best-of-seven series played Wednesday night at Lower Merion, with the fourth game slated for Lower Merion High School this Saturday night at 8:30.

Seeking revenge for their 59-41 trouncing at Haverford, the Vets outshot and outthought a Brookline team which suffered the same fate the Vets experienced Monday night—namely, the inability to score consistently.

Bink Manning's layup early in the first quarter gave the Vets a 5-0 lead which they never relinquished as they won going away. The substitution of Bud Long and Chuck Vigners into the Lower Merion lineup seemed to supply the needed spark and the Vets enlarged a slim 14-9 lead into a 33-22 halftime margin.

Long and Vigners continued to roll as the Vets surged to 52-35 lead at the end of the third quarter. Only a timely, re-plunge by Brookline pulled the Big Green up to the 50-point mark.

Bud Long, who did not play last night because he accompanied the University of Pennsylvania basketball team to Cuba, was the big gun for the Vets with 19 points. He scored six field goals and seven out of seven from the foul line.

Chuck Vigners, tall ex-Penn captain, played his best game of the year, controlling the backboard against the taller Brookline team. A substitute most of the season, he contributed eight points on tap-ins.

Charlie Gunther, former Haverford High School star, again led Manager Herb Good's team with 18 points. Gunther has scored 36 points in the first two playoff games. Bill Poletti found his self-shot eye and zipped through seven field goals for 14 points.

According to the latest league plans, the fifth game of the series will be played on Wednesday night, April 9, with a sixth contest (if necessary) on April 11. Both will be played at Lower Merion High.

Because of his duties with the Philadelphia Warriors, Manager Herb Good, of Brookline, will be unable to handle the Mitchell and Ness team on Wednesday or Saturday.

In his absence, Joe Cave, assistant manager, will direct the Brookline team.

Capture Crown

Valley Forge Military Academy's fencing team triumphed in the annual Yale Trophy tournament Saturday at the Academy gymnasium in Wayne, winning over seven opponents.

The Trojans tallied 10 points to nose out Ben Franklin High's defending champions. Franklin finished second with eight. Other scores: Central High, seven; Southern, Northeast and Penn Charter, five each; Haverford High, three, and Girard College, two.

Valley Forge produced an individual champion in Ralph Newland, of St. Joseph, Mich. He won the event by capturing all seven tests. During the regular season, Newland won 12 of 16 matches.

Haverford High's Larry Welle, who finished third, twice placed, handed Southern's William Johnson his only loss as he captured that event.
